

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's Telephone privacy law. I hope that the FCC will rule on the side of the people and not the businesses. I don't want this businesses to call me even if I have a established business relationship.